

Since 1992, the Santa Barbara Lesbian & Gay Film Festival has been providing a diverse spectrum of films and videos for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities. You can learn more about getting involved with the Festival by visiting our website at www.outrageousfilmfestival.org.

$75 Passes allow patrons early admission to all shows and free admittance to the Saturday reception. Pass holders must arrive at least 15 minutes prior to the screening to be guaranteed a seat. To purchase a pass, visit www.outrageousfilmfestival.org. Passes can also be purchased in the theater at the OUTrageous/09 hospitality table once the festival starts.

Individual Tickets will be available at the theater box office on the day of the screening. Tickets for individual screenings are $10.

Seniors (65 and older) and Students (with valid I.D.) may purchase discounted tickets at the theater.

All films will be shown at the Metro Four Theatre at 618 State Street, except Thursday's FREE program, which will be screened at UCSB's Multicultural Center.

Volunteers are essential to the smooth running of the festival. Volunteer positions during the run of the festival include line monitors, ticket counters, reception attendants and door monitors. To volunteer, please call Pacific Pride Foundation at 963-3636 or visit www.outrageousfilmfestival.org.

In Case of a Sell-Out: In order to ensure we don't oversell, we will TEMPORARILY stop selling tickets when we reach 95 percent capacity. If the box office says "sold out," come to the OUTrageous/09 hospitality desk inside the theatre to get a number for the waiting list, aptly called the "Q." We will issue Qs to the first fifteen people AFTER the TEMPORARY closure of the box office. A Q gives the holder first priority if tickets become available. Q-holders should be back in line 15 minutes before the time of the show to claim their place in line. After we have tallied the number of pass holders and ticket holders and determined that seats are available, then the box office will reopen. NOTE: You can avoid all this by purchasing a pass!

Film Festival Committee Members: Mashey Bernstein, Gary Clark, Jack Funk, Ryan Hedge, Dianna Hosley, Colette Schabram, David Selberg, Dennis Whelan

Special thanks to: Randy Arnowitz, Marilyn Makepeace and Vince Turano.

4:00PM • OUTRAGE

A searing and unrepentant documentary that takes us into the (crowded) closet—and bathroom stalls—of supposedly straight politicians who consistently vote down gay supportive bills. A movie that will truly make you outraged! Appearances by Barney Frank and Tony Kushner. From Academy Award Nominated director Kirby Dick.

Dir. Kirby Dick, USA, 90 min
Invited guest: Kirby Dick

7:00PM • I CAN'T THINK STRAIGHT

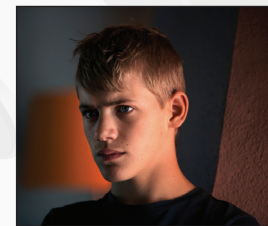

Lisa Ray and Sheetal Sheth, true world beauties, star as lovers negotiating the challenges of family and societal expectations. Tala (Ray) is a well-to-do Palestinian Christian and Leyal (Sheth) is a Muslim living in London with her Indian immigrant parents. Their love makes them tackle the big issues of religion, race and ethnicity. Director Sarif handles all with a deft touch that is guaranteed to delight all.

Dir. Shamin Sarif, UK, 82 min

9:00PM • PATRICK, AGE 1.5

What a difference a comma can make! Gay newlyweds Sven and Goran have it all (jobs, home, love). To complete their perfect lives they plan to adopt a baby. Oops. Instead of a little bundle of joy, they get a homophobic teenager. Featuring lush cinematography and smorgasbord of slick Swedish design, this heartwarming movie via humor and honesty, teaches us something about real "family values."

Dir. Ella Lemhagen, Sweden, 103 min

In Swedish with English subtitles.

7:00PM • GHOSTED

SPONSORED BY MARILYN MAKEPEACE

Legendary filmmaker Monika Treut brings us a beautifully crafted, mysterious love story.

Sophie leaves Hamburg for Taipei to remember her lover Ai-Ling, only to find herself pursued by a relentless reporter Mei-Li who seems just as eager to learn about their love as she is to seduce Sophie. As much a romance about cultures as it is about the women, "Ghosted" is a sensual midgame that asks questions in the sultriest way possible. We are proud to show this in an eye-popping 35mm print.

Dir. Monika Treut, German/Taiwan, 35mm, 89 min

In English, German, and Mandarin with subtitles.

8:45PM • CHEF'S SPECIAL

SPONSORED BY STEVE WARNER AND VINCE TURANO

Restaraunteur and chef Maxi certainly has his plate full:a closeted lover, two young children who don't like their long absent father, homophobic parents, a crazy staff and that ever elusive star rating from a Michelin food critic. Can this already manic fire brand of a gay man hold it all together? A mad cap comedy to round out this year's festivities. With Almodovar stars: Javier Camara (Talk to Her) and Lola Duenas and Chus Lampreave.

Dir. Nacho G. Velila, Spain, 111 min
In Spanish with subtitles.
